MANY CHANGES IN NEW SCHEDULE

First Train from Gettysburg to Baltimore Leaves here before Five O'Clock. Next One after Three O'Clock in the Afternoon.

Radical changes are announced in the new Western Maryland Railway schedule which goes into effect on Wednesday, April 15. The trains between Gettysburg and Baltimore do not run to or from Highfield, while the trains between Gettysburg and York have Highfield as a terminus.

The first train east is made up at Gettysburg and leaves here at 4:40 in the morning, arriving at Baltimore at 8:27. This train returns in the evening, leaving Baltimore at 5:30 and arriving at Gettysburg at 9 o'clock, giving persons an entire day in the Monumental City, and allowing a late return from York, Hanover, New Oxford and other towns east.

The second train east in the morning runs between Highfield and York leaving Gettysburg at 8:46 and arriving at York at 10:25.

The early afternoon train east is made up at Gettysburg and leaves here at 3:10 going to Baltimore with 6:25 as its arrival time in that city.

At 5:38 in the evening a train running from Highfield to York is due at Gettysburg.

The first train from the east arrives in Gettysburg at 10:22 a. m., leaving Baltimore at 7:15 and York at 8:40. It has Gettysburg as its terminus.

At 11:10 the first train for points west is due to arrive at 11:10, leaving York at 9:25, running to Highfield with a connection for Hagerstown which places the traveler in that city at 1:10 and in Pittsburgh at 8:05 p. m.

The afternoon train running between York and Highfield leaves York at 3:15 and arrives at Gettysburg at 5:38. The evening train leaves Baltimore at 5:30 arriving here at nine o'clock.

The following trains are daily 4:40, 10:22, and 11:10 a. m.; 5:38 east, and 9:00 p. m. The others are daily except Sunday. In addition a train will leave Gettysburg at 5:50 p. m. for Baltimore and intermediate points on Sunday only. This gives Gettysburg six Sunday trains on the Western Maryland.

The schedule will work a hardship, it is feared, on persons living west of Gettysburg desiring to go to Baltimore. Gettysburg people going to Baltimore by the Western Maryland cannot leave before 3:10 p. m. unless they take the early morning train at 4:40 which requires well onto four hours to make the trip.

Persons wishing to go from various points between Baltimore and Porters to points west of Gettysburg will be compelled to "lay over" here from 10:22 to 11:10 a. m.

It will be noticed that the two late afternoon trains are both due here at 5:38 and will have Gettysburg as a passing point.

JOHN FITZ

Hanover Inventor and Manufacturer Died in Baltimore Sunday.

John Fitz, of Hanover, well known as an inventor and manufacturer, died at the Union Protestant Infirmary, Baltimore, Sunday, at 3:10 p. m.

He was a son of the late Samuel Fitz, a prominent business man in the earlier days of Hanover. When a boy he assisted his father in the manufacture of threshing machines, engines, mill machinery and water wheels. He himself engaged extensively in later years in manufacturing water wheels.

He leaves his wife and five daughters. Mrs. John S. Ziegler, of Gettysburg, is a distant relative.

Funeral Wednesday, April 15, services at the house, Rev. A. S. Dechant, officiating. Interment on the family lot in Mt. Olivet cemetery, Hanover.

ENJOYED HIKE

Three Young Ladies of Hanover Walked to Gettysburg.

Miss Catharine Wasserman, Miss Klunk and Miss Kuhn, three young ladies of Hanover, visited friends in Gettysburg on Monday after having walked the entire distance from Hanover. The trip consumed five hours and the hikers showed no signs of fatigue when they arrived here.

START TO MARK LINCOLN WAY

Highway from Gettysburg to the Susquehanna River is now being Marked. Work under Direction of York Chamber of Commerce.

Work was started this morning to mark officially the route of the Lincoln Way between the Susquehanna River and Gettysburg. The operations are under the direction of the York Chamber of Commerce which held a special meeting Monday night at which A. R. Pardington, of Detroit, vice president of the Lincoln Highway Association, was present and made an address.

It was decided to place electrically lighted steel arches at the eastern and western limits of York announcing the route of the Lincoln Way. Chambersburg has a similar arch and it is suggested that this town might, with perfect propriety, erect arches at the east end of York street and the junction of Springs avenue and Buford street.

The meeting at York Monday night was largely to prevent a change in the route of the Lincoln Way which would take that city out of its scope. The route originally adopted takes the road from Philadelphia, through Coatesville, Lancaster, Columbia and York to Gettysburg; and from here west through Chambersburg and the regular western route.

A recent effort was inaugurated to have the road pass through Baltimore and Washington to Gettysburg and from here west. Monday night's action, it is believed will save the highway to York.

Mr. Pardington stated that the impression that congress is to ultimately fix the route is erroneous. States and counties in the states are adopting the route, but Pennsylvania has been backward in taking action, he explained.

At York much of the work and material for the two arches will be furnished free of all charge by business men of that city.

UGLY FIRE ON THE MOUNTAIN

Cottages and One Hotel Threatened with Destruction on South Mountain when Forest Fire Burns over Twenty Five Acres.

A mountain fire, which, by hard work on the part of a few men, was prevented from destroying a hotel and several cottages at Pen Mar park, occurred late Saturday evening. It burned over much of the triangular part of timber land between the High Rock road and the road leading to the Washington Cliff house. It is thought that it was started by a lighted match dropped by some person in the dry brush wood.

The fire burned over a tract of twenty-five acres. Before it had covered much ground it destroyed a stable, formerly occupied by Harry Leshner, a teamster, and would have destroyed the small building occupied by Leshner had it not been for the efforts of Arthur Haines, Fred Gallion and Edward Punt, who turned the course of the flames.

The flames also spread in the direction of the Eureka lodge, owned by Joseph Hampson, Baltimore, and now occupied by his family. The family saved the building by checking the flames' progress in that direction. The fire also burned in the direction of the Washington Cliff house, owned by Mrs. Ella Finch, Baltimore, the private cottage of B. H. Foreman, Waynesboro, and the Glendon cottage, owned by J. M. Newcomer, Waynesboro, and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. A. Gassman Haines.

It was extinguished by the above men after a hard fight, when it had got within a few feet of the buildings. The damage to the timber land was considerable.

Several weeks ago a fire burned over the timber land in the vicinity of Sunnyside cottage, owned by Mrs. Ella Finch, along the High Rock road or just opposite where the fire occurred, Saturday night.

SEEMS SUCCESSFUL

Gettysburg Baby Continues to See and Improve with Pig's Cornea.

Lusty and healthy, David Kane, the 9-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kane, of Gettysburg, who now sees with the cornea of a pig's eye grafted onto his own following a wonderful operation at the Baltimore Eye, Ear and Throat hospital, continues to improve, according to physicians at the institution.

It has been two weeks and five days since David underwent the operation. There is no doubt that the operation is a success, but whether the child's sight will be permanently restored is a question which will be solved only after several more weeks have elapsed.

A slight cloudiness of the eye appeared several days ago, but the physicians stated on Monday that they have every hope this will disappear after a special treatment.

A series of operations of this sort is to be held at the hospital in the near future. The object is to prove conclusively that sight can be restored through the grafting of an animal's eye to the human eye.

MADE CHAIRMAN

Adams County Gets a Representative of the Suffrage Movement.

Miss Anna L. Gamble, of York, chairman of the York County Woman's Suffrage party, has received announcement of her appointment as chairman of the Twentieth Congressional District, consisting of York and Adams counties, of the National American Suffrage Association.

In virtue of her appointment Miss Gamble becomes subservient to Miss Mary Winsor, of Philadelphia, one of the most prominent and enthusiastic suffragists in this State, who now enjoys the distinction of being the chairman of the Pennsylvania congressional committee, National American Suffrage Association.

LAST OLD-TIME TEAMSTER DIES

Man who Used to Haul Flour from this Vicinity to Baltimore, Bringing back Merchandise, Dies at his Mont Alto Home.

Samuel Heefner, aged 87 years, of Mont Alto, the last of the old teamsters in this vicinity who, more than sixty years ago, hauled the produce of the farm to Baltimore, died in Mont Alto Saturday evening.

Wheat of the farm was sold to the miller and ground up into flour, which was put into barrels and sent to the city by wagon, which was the means of transportation in those early days before the advent of railroads. Returning city merchandise for the country merchants composed the load.

Six horses usually were used to get over the mountain, when two of them were sent back home and the wagon team proceeded on its way with four horses. From six to ten or more teams made up the procession. They had regular stopping places at hotels along the way where the teams were put up and fed for the night and the teamsters would get their supper, after which they would seat themselves in the barroom and chat until it was time to close up for the night when they would spread out their blankets (which they took along with them) on the barroom floor and would sleep there. The next morning, after obtaining their breakfast, they would hitch up their teams and proceed on their way.

When the city was reached the wagons were unloaded and again reloaded with merchandise. In some cases a half-dozen places had to be driven to make up the load. The merchant ordering the goods would place a certain amount of money in a pocketbook or envelope and give it to the teamster who in turn would hand it to the merchant visited, who would take out the money needed to pay his bill and then hand the remainder back to the teamster and this was repeated at each place until his load was made up and, if any money was left, this was taken back home.

Mr. Heefner, on one occasion, was given $1200 to handle in this way, which he did to the satisfaction of the one who gave it to him.

The funeral was held this afternoon at two o'clock in Mont Alto.

LAFAEAN MOVEMENT

Movement in State to Nominate Lafaean for Congressman-at-Large.

Petitions are in circulation in five counties of Pennsylvania for the nomination of ex-Congressman D. F. Lafaean, of York, as a Republican congressman-at-large. The movement originated in Philadelphia, where the first of the petitions is receiving many signatures. Other petitions are being circulated in York, Adams, Lancaster and Dauphin counties with equal success. The law requires petitions from five counties for this office.

While it had been announced that Mr. Lafaean would not accept a nomination for return to congress from the York-Adams district, his friends believe that he can be prevailed on to enter the field for congressman-at-large. The ex-congressman had no comment to make to-day in regard to the petitions when questioned.

ANNUAL EGG HUNT

Little Children Have Happy Time Searching in the Grass.

The little children of the Presbyterian Sunday School had a happy time of it Monday afternoon when they were given the annual egg hunt on East Cemetery Hill. A large number of brilliantly colored eggs had been hidden in the grass, among rocks and at other convenient places. For a half hour the little tots carried on the game, frequent cries of delight announcing the find of a "hidden treasure". The one first finding four eggs was awarded a large chocolate rabbit. The honor fell to Earl Bowers.

NAMED SLAYERS OF ROSENTHAL

Vallon, "Lefty Louie" and "Gyp the Blood" Did Killing.

FIRST NAMED STILL FREE

"Dago Frank" Made Detailed Statement of Murder an Hour Before He Was Executed.

Ossining, N. Y., April 14.—The confession by "Dago Frank" of the murder of Herman Rosenthal was made an hour before he was executed when he was taken out of the death house at Sing Sing into another part of the prison.

In the room to which he was taken were his mother, his sister, Warder Clancy, the principal keeper, McInerney, and Father Cashin, Catholic chaplain of the prison.

At that time he was on the verge of collapse. He was able, however, to make his statement, and this statement was taken down and signed by himself and by Clancy, the prison warden. The statement was sent to Governor Glynn, at Albany.

At the start of his confession Clancy told how "Sam" Scheppe, "Jack" Rose and Vallon went to his flat in Harlem on the night of the murder. He went back with them to "Bridge" Webber's gambling place at Forty-second street and Sixth avenue. There they met the three other gunmen.

He said that he left the other gunmen in "Bridge" Webber's place because he received word that his girl had been arrested uptown. He wanted to get her out of jail. He insisted that, as a result, he was not present at the shooting, and then declared that the shots that killed Rosenthal were fired by "Lefty Louie," "Gyp the Blood" and Harry Vallon. "Whitney Lewis," he said, did not fire a shot because his gun missed fire. He declared here and at other stages of his statement that he had never heard of Charles Becker in the case, that none of the gunmen knew of Becker having any connection with the plot to kill Rosenthal.

It was recalled that the testimony at the trial showed that the gunmen never heard of Charles Becker in their murderous transaction.

"Dago Frank" said the day following the crime he received one-fourth of $1000 for the murder.

As he finished his statement Clancy was one of the point of collapse. He could barely sign his statement.

Clancy, as soon as he could, talked with Governor Glynn on the telephone and told him of the statement. He assured the governor that what "Dago Frank" said made it certain that there had been no miscarriage of justice.

The two important features of the confession, aside from this assurance to the officers of justice, are that Harry Vallon is named as one of the men who fired the shots and that the gunmen were not told about Becker having any connection with the murder.

Vallon can now be tried for murder. The agreement of immunity made with him by District Attorney Whitman when he was a witness against Becker and the gunmen does not hold good if it is shown that he fired a shot at Rosenthal.

Wants to Try Becker on May 4.

New York, May 14.—The second trial of Charles S. Becker, former police lieutenant, found guilty of murder with the four gunmen executed, will begin on May 4 if District Attorney Whitman has his way. It was said at the district attorney's office that Mr. Whitman will appear before a supreme court justice on Wednesday with a motion to set the trial for that date. He will also ask for a special panel of talesmen.

BIG SPEECH PROMISED

President Wilson to Attend Associated Press Banquet in New York.

Washington, April 14.—Announcement was made at the White House that President Wilson had accepted an invitation to speak on April 21 at a luncheon at the annual meeting of the Associated Press in New York city.

MUST SALUTE FLAG SAYS THE PRESIDENT

Mexico Must Make Reparation For Arrest of Marines.

Washington, April 14.—President Wilson told callers that a salute would be fired to the American flag by Mexican Federalists at Tampico as an apology for the recent arrest of American marines.

The president spoke with such confidence that his hearers took it to imply that the point would be insisted upon. The president has already approved Rear Admiral Mayo's demand for the salute as an apology.

Secretary Daniels also had notified Admiral Mayo that his action is approved. "The salute will be fired," was his positive announcement. He added that he did not consider the element of time an important one, because of difficulties of communication between Washington and Tampico.

The state and navy departments have received details of the arrest of the Dolphin's paymaster and marines by Colonel Hinojosa. The men were paraded through the streets to one of the Federal barracks and the detachment was jeered by Huerta followers.

Huerta has been informed by Charge O'Shaughnessy of these details and notified that the United States, having reached the limit of patience, he would have to act promptly to prevent Rear Admiral Mayo from carrying out his plan.

The apology made by Huerta on Friday night has not been accepted by the United States as full reparation for the indignities heaped upon the American government.

No official will deny that Admiral Mayo will not open fire with his big guns. They assert that full redress will be obtained.

BANK ROBBER STILL FREE

No Trace of Bandit Who Escaped From Hollidaysburg Jail.

Altoona, Pa., April 14.—Continuous search has failed to bring forth any clue as to the whereabouts of Frank G. Carroll, the confessed robber of the Union bank, of this city, who escaped from the Blair county jail at Hollidaysburg, early Sunday morning.

Whether he had a confederate who aided him in escaping in an automobile, as is believed by the police, has not been established. Carroll was only scantily clad when he slipped out of the jail.

The county commissioners have offered $400 reward for his recapture.

Judge Baldrige ordered impounded $600 in money and diamonds found in Carroll's clothing when he was arrested.

COUSINS SLAIN FROM AMBUSH

Woman Finds Son and Nephew Dead in Yard.

FIVE RELATIVES ARE HELD

Men Had Returned Fire and Mother of One Falls Over Bodies and Is Herself Wounded.

Somerset, Pa., April 14.—In a shooting affray at Boswell, this county, two men, cousins, were shot to death, and a woman, the mother of one of the men, was wounded.

The shooting took place in the back yard of the home and, although the police were on the scene in a few moments, it is believed the slayers escaped.

The dead men are: John D'Angelo, shot through the heart.

Joseph D'Angelo, shot five times.

The injured are: Mrs. Frank D'Angelo, mother of Joseph, shot through left shoulder and head; will recover.

The affray occurred as the cousins were returning home from a visit Mrs. D'Angelo, awakened from her sleep by a fusillade of shots, rushed to the rear door, fell over the bodies of her son and nephew and was herself shot by the unknown assailant, who fired from bushes surrounding the yard. She pitched headlong over the bodies of the men.

As she attempted to arise another shot was fired and, the bullet piercing her clothing, she screamed and then crawled back into the kitchen.

A few minutes later an automobile sped up to the front of the house, slowed down, was boarded by several men, and then raced away in the darkness.

Police, attracted by the shots, rushed to the house in time to see the automobile leaving. The police visited the house of a neighbor, a short distance away, and arrested seven men, five of whom are relatives of the dead men. They were lodged in the lockup at Boswell. It is alleged that some of the men participated in the shooting.

In the bushes back of the house an automatic revolver, stained with blood, was found, and led to the belief that one of the assailants was shot and dropped his weapon.

Near the bodies of the cousins two revolvers were found, leading the police to believe that the cousins fought for their lives to the last. Five chambers of one revolver were empty and one of the other.

The D'Angelo family is well known at Boswell and is reputed to be rich. Although the police for several hours "sweated" the suspects one at a time, they have been unable to find a motive for the shooting.

Mrs. D'Angelo was not seriously injured, and after her wounds were dressed by a physician she was able to go about the house.

SLAIN AT SUPPER TABLE

Killed by Shot Through Window While Dining With Wife and Children.

New York, April 14.—A sheriff's posse is scouring the country about Westbury, L. I., for some trace of the assassins who murdered Frank Lanzara as he was at supper with his wife and three children.

Lanzara was sitting at the table, with his back to a window. There was a roar and Lanzara fell from his chair to the floor, the top of his head almost blown off.

Mrs. Lanzara turned to the window in time to see two men run away toward a thick growth of underbrush. She failed to get a good look at either of them.

CAN'T DRIVE UNION LABOR

But Industrial Commission Is Told They Can Be Led.

Washington, April 14.—Frederick W. Taylor, of Philadelphia, told the industrial relations commission that in his opinion labor unions soon would insist upon scientific management systems.

There was no such thing as driving the workmen, he said, and the difficulty in getting the system started in many plants has been due more to the employer than to the employees.

He said one experiment had reduced the cost of shoveling iron ore and coal from eight cents a ton to less than four cents.

Thrown Ball Kills Player.

New York, April 14.—The first death due to baseball so far reported in New York and vicinity this season occurred Monday. John Nelson, Jr., eighteen years, was injured in a game on Saturday. He was playing first base, when a Crown ball struck him in the temple. Death was caused by the bursting of a blood vessel in the forehead.

114 Candles on Her Cake.

Philadelphia, April 14.—"Aunt" Mahala Ayer on Sunday celebrated her 114th birthday anniversary at the Home for Aged Colored Persons. Of friends of the home had made a huge cake for her and she placed 114 candles on it herself. "Aunt" Mahala was born a slave on the plantation of John Fositt, in Maryland, April 12, 1830.

"COLD FEET" ON TOLLS REPEAL

Mr. Wilson's Opinion of Opponents of Bill.

AGREES WITH BRYAN'S VIEW

President Says Repeal Legislation Could Not Be Regarded as Interpreting the Treaty.

Washington, April 14.—President Wilson declared that the repeal of the Panama tolls exemption could not be regarded as an interpretation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty because it would be a legislative act.

The president held that no amendment setting forth the rights of the United States under the treaty was necessary, in his opinion.

Mr. Wilson said the tolls situation in the senate was constantly improving, and apparently that persons who had been asked to appear in the hearings were getting "cold feet."

As to the pending bill, the president took the same view as Secretary of State Bryan, that by repealing the exemptions the United States merely showed a disinclination to raise the question of discrimination, but did not by its act limit any future policy of the government.

Mr. Wilson drew a distinction between a legislative act and an authoritative interpretation of a treaty, the latter of which would have to be formulated by the executive branch of the government and ratified by a two-thirds vote of the senate.

The president remarked that, among the senators who would be in the majority on the tolls question, there did not seem to be any sentiment for amendment. He incidentally declined to discuss the reported exemption of Colombian war vessels from the payment of tolls, saying that when the new treaty was made public that phase of it would be clarified.

Secretary Bryan has thrown himself into the canal tolls fight and by doing so has raised another issue which it is predicted will increase the bitterness in the Democratic party.

He charges in effect that the tolls exemption plank in the Baltimore platform was inserted without the consent of the party, and that it involves the question of the United States arraying itself against the world.

For the first time also Mr. Bryan acknowledges that the diplomatic relations of this government with other nations are seriously threatened by the exemption clause in the Panama canal act and that it involves the question of the United States arraying itself against the world.

Some Democrats in congress were quoted as saying that they were preparing to rise in their seats and charge Mr. Bryan with self-confessed incompetency as a result of his stand. They intend to ask why as chairman of the resolutions committee of the Baltimore convention, which drafted the platform, he allowed so-called contradictory plans to appear in that declaration.

FLOATING ZOO ARRIVES

German Steamer Brings Many Rare Animals From Europe.

Philadelphia, April 14.—A floating zoo reached this port when the German steamship Bohemia arrived from Hamburg.

In one of the holds of the vessel were animals of all sizes. There were sixteen camels, three antelopes, three snakes, two llamas, two yacks and one blue gnu. Three antelopes died on the voyage.

The animals originally came from Cairo, Egypt, and will go from here to Baltimore on the steamship and then be placed in quarantine at that port for two weeks. They will then be shipped by rail to a New York dealer.

Schoolgirl Elopes: Is Forgiven.

New York, April 14.—Miss Elsie Wolke, sixteen years old, a Stamford, Conn., high school student, who eloped to New York and was married to Elfred Brunstrup, twenty-five years old, of South Norwalk, piano player in a Stamford theater, has returned home with her husband. She telephoned from New York, telling her mother of the marriage and was forgiven.

Insane Soldier Kills Three.

Peshawar, British India, April 14.—A petty officer in the native branch of the British army went suddenly insane and killed three men and probably mortally wounded four others before he was shot to death by one of his own men. Lieutenant Hickey and two frontier constables were killed and Major Dodd, Captain Brown and two constables were wounded.

Stabbed During Quarrel.

South Bethlehem, Pa., April 14.—Warren Brown, a waiter at the Lehigh University Commons, has a stab wound in the left lung as the result of a quarrel with W. B. Davis, another waiter, who is held as his assailant. They are said to have quarreled over a dime. Davis is in jail awaiting the result of Brown's injuries.

Man Killed in Culpepper Fire.

Culpepper, Va., April 14.—Four large business houses here were destroyed by fire. One man was killed in fighting the flames, which spread rapidly because of the lack of water. Help was summoned from surrounding towns.

COXEY ARMY PLANS MANY RESTS IN TRIP

New York Hoboes May Reach Capital in May.

New York, April 14. — "General" Coxe 1914 Army, similar to the one which twenty years ago started from Massillon, Ohio, for the White House with a panacea for all financial ills, may be expected in this city some time in May, when the New York branch of the "army" is on its way to Washington.

This does not refer to the aggregation of migratory unemployed that started twenty years ago on the utopian mission, but the "army" that is planning to repeat the performance some time during the month of May.

Although the date of departure from New York is scheduled for the first of May, expert itineraries are uncertain when the forces will reach any destination because of the many rests planned for the trip, which is to be by "shoe leather express."

The participants will be hoboes, or rather members of the Brotherhood Welfare association, with which Eads Howe, Jr., the "hobo millionaire," is prominently connected.

If the rests are not too long a delegation of the "army" may be expected at the White House by May 21. An appeal will be made to the president to make money more plentiful, and incidentally make work more obtainable.

COPPER MINERS END STRIKE

6000 Men Out of Work Since July Vote to Resume.

Hancock, Mich., April 14.—The copper mine workers, numbering 6000, who have been on strike since July 23 last, have voted to call off the strike. It is unofficially reported that the majority in favor of calling off the strike was 1012.

Recognition of the union, denied by the mining companies, is waived by the strikers in voting to return to work. They claim that practically all of their other demands have been complied with. These included better working conditions, an eight-hour day and a minimum daily wage of $3.

Several thousand men have been imported to fill the strikers' places and the companies will be hard pressed to find work for the returning strikers.

RECOVERS STOLEN GEMS

Young Hotel Clerk Purloined $5000 Worth of Rings and Brilliants.

Rome, April 14.—Princess Dolly Radziwill, who was Miss Dorothy Deacon, recovered $5000 worth of rings and brilliants stolen from a jewel case some days ago at her hotel.

The thief proved to be a young clerk attached to the hotel, who confessed that he stole the jewels and secreted them in a cloakroom.

The princess said: "I am delighted that I got my property back. The rings included family relics and no money could have compensated for the loss."

Workman Burned to Death.

Rochester, N. Y., April 14.—Samuel Washburn, employed by Oscar Sartara, near Mount Morris, was burned to death in a fire that destroyed the Sartara residence.

GAFFNEY TO SUE FEDS

Braves Owner Will Ask $25,000 Damages For Loss of Quinn.

New York, April 14.—James E. Gaffney, president of the Boston National league club, announced that he intends to take legal action for conspiracy against the officers of the Federal league because of the desertion of Pitcher Jack Quinn to the Baltimore team of the Federals.

"I have determined," he said, "to begin an action against all those concerned in the signing of Quinn to a Baltimore Federal contract, including Edward Hanlon, Otto Knebe, the Federal league and its president, James A. Gilmore, individually."

"The action will be brought to recover damages to which the Boston club is entitled by reason of the conspiracy entered into by these parties which resulted in Quinn breaking his contract with the Boston club."

Gaffney denounced the Federal league leaders as "hypocrites who have been going around telling how upright and honorable they were."

The amount to be asked by Gaffney is said to be $25,000.

DEMOCRATS HONOR THOMAS JEFFERSON

Secretary Daniel Guest at Harrisburg Banquet.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 14. — Democrats from almost every county in the state joined with the Central Democratic club, of Harrisburg, in its annual celebration of the birthday of Thomas Jefferson, the dinner being with that of last year, when Secretary of State Bryan was the orator.

More than 750 men sat down to the feast, which was followed by addresses, with Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels as the top liner.

About 500 women were present to hear the speeches.

It was a truly Democratic evening. Daniels praised Jefferson and said that the spirit of the great president was the lodestar of the present administration, predicting that his legislative program would confer great benefits. Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer, State Chairman Roland S. Morris and Vance C. McCormick, candidate for governor, were other speakers. Mr. McCormick, who is a member of the club, received an ovation from the big audience. It was his first speech in his home city, and everyone joined in a tribute to him.

BASE BALL SEASON OPENS

National and American Leagues Play First Games This Afternoon.

New York, April 14.—The pennant races of the National and American leagues, the major organizations of organized base ball, got under way this afternoon.

With the coming of the Federal league a big change has taken place in the base ball situation since the last opening, but the newcomer as yet occupies a dubious position.

The world's champions Athletics, winners of three successive blue ribbon series, engaged Frank Chance's New York Americans at the Polo Grounds. A good many New Yorkers went to Philadelphia to give McGraw and his champions their moral support.

SCORES DR. WILEY

Dr. Mary Walker Raps Him For Taking Son Out Walking.

Washington, April 14. — Dr. Mary Walker says she does not approve of Easter parades and raps Dr. Harvey W. Wiley for taking his son out walking Sunday with the paraders.

"I was surprised to learn that Dr. Wiley had his little son out," said she, "and think he should know better than run the risk of making the child bow-legged."

She thinks if Dr. Wiley wants to show the boy off he had better "get a carriage and take the little man for a ride."

Dr. Walker says she did not get a new Easter Bonnet.

Renew Arbitration With Italy.

TAFFETAS, FLOWERED AND PLAIN, FAVORED FOR AFTERNOON FROCKS.

Every season there is a rumor that taffetas will be worn but, for some reason or other, American women have always refused to take them up to any extent. This season, however, it looks as if they were going to. These new taffetas are of wonderful quality; supple enough to be crushed in the hands like chiffon. There is an American made taffeta called "Pussy Willow" that is quite as perfect as it is possible to make it. The French houses are using crepe and chateau tints for evening and the darker shades—tete de negre, blue and wine color—for daytime wear.

It is an effective way to combine chiffon with taffetas as illustrated in No. 8122. This is an afternoon dress of tete de negre figured taffetas, with bodice and tunic of chiffon. In the same shade: the flounce at the bottom of the skirt is of chiffon also.

This frock may be copied in size 36, with 5½ yards of 36 inch material.

No. 8061 is also developed in taffetas in a deep, rich shade of bordeaux. There is an unusual sash starting at the front of the bodice, crossing in front and extending around the hips to the back, where it terminates in two long ends. It catches up the tunic over either hip, to give the puffed effect which is a feature of so many of the imported models for spring.

This dress may be copied in size 36, with about 6 yards of 36 inch material. Taffetas average about 40 inches in width and range in price from $1 a yard up.

No. 8122—sizes 34 to 42.

No. 8061—sizes 34 to 42.

Each pattern 15 cents.

Rub Soreness from joints and muscles with a small trial bottle of old St. Jacobs Oil

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism.

It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right on the "tender spot", and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia.

Limber up! Get a 25 cent bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

Medical Advertising OLD-TIME COLD CURE-- DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Brewster Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

They Looked Dangerous.

A little three-year-old boy, who from time of infancy had been under the care of doctors and trained nurses, was visiting his grandmother after convalescence from tonsillitis. An open fire attracted him. After watching the sparks, which fell incessantly on the hearth, he asked, "Grandma, are those red spots germs?"—Christian Register.

SHE SAVED HIM

By MAY C. ETHERIDGE

"John, I've something to say to you. You're a good fellow, and I have no family. I have some stock in the Hope Mining company that is valuable and other securities. They're all in this tin box. There is also a will in the box leaving all I possess to you."

"Why, Mr. Hathorn," said John Murray, surprised, "what in the world put that into your head? I've been working for you only six months, and you never saw me before I came to you and asked you for a position in your store. Besides, you are a healthy, strong man, liable to live thirty or forty years longer."

"I'll tell you, John. You're told me about that wife of yours in the east and that little kid you set so much store by. Something tells me that I've not long to live. If I were to die tomorrow there wouldn't be a person in the world to claim what I left. If I will it to you you can bring your family out here and go right on with the store. I might as well make some one comfortable, mightn't I? Come with me."

He took John to his bedroom over the store, pulled up a plank in the floor, put in the box and relaid the plank. Then the two went downstairs and resumed their work. That night John Murray wrote his wife in the east and told her of the bequest that might some day come to them.

It was about three months after this that John, who took care of the books and the cash, made up a deposit of the cash that had come in during the week for the bank at the county seat, some ten miles distant. While riding through a narrow defile a man sprang upon him and before he could draw his revolver disarmed him and, taking out a rope, bound him hand and foot. Then, appropriating the money he carried, he left John beside the road and made off in the direction of the store.

John remained as he was several hours before any one came along to release him; then he returned to report the robbery. Entering the store, he found it deserted. Looking about the place, he found Hathorn's dead body in the barn, with a little bay thrown over it.

Here were two troubles John had to report to his neighbors, though the first was nothing in comparison with the second. His story looked very unlikely. It seemed more probable that he had made up the story about having been robbed, had appropriated the money himself and had murdered his employer. The store stood alone, with no house within a mile. John was arrested and tried, and, though the evidence against him was purely circumstantial, it insured his conviction, and he was sentenced to be hanged.

One day a woman entered a jewelry store at the county seat, where John was awaiting execution, and offered to sell a watch. The jeweler noticed on the case the initials E. L. H. He asked the woman if these were her initials, and she admitted that they were not and looked frightened. This excited the suspicion of the jeweler, and he kept the woman parleying till he could learn more of her. Then it occurred to him that the initials were those of Mr. Hathorn, whose murder had excited so great a commotion in the community. He sent for an officer, and the woman was arrested. Having been put through a severe examination, she broke down and confessed that she had murdered Hathorn and carried off the watch with her. But she claimed that plunder had not been her object, averring that Hathorn had married and deserted her.

There were two opinions as to this confession, the one being that it was untrue, the other that it was genuine. Those who maintained the latter view were supported by the fact that Murray's lawyer had brought evidence to show that Hathorn had feared some secret enemy. This turned the scale against the woman, though Murray was not at once released. As soon as he was he went to the jail where she was confined to have a look at her.

He was astonished to see his own wife.

Fortunately the official that was with him was behind Murray and the wife had time to give her husband a warning look not to recognize her before the man came up. During the interview she also succeeded in whispering to him: "Fly for your life. I will be all right." John saw in this a scheme to save him and as soon as he left the jail disappeared. A day or two later Mrs. Murray recalled her confession, telling the following story:

She said that as soon as she heard of her husband's arrest she had gone west. She had had Hathorn's initials engraved on a watch that belonged to her brother and used it to get herself arrested. She told of the tin box of which her husband had written her and which had not been referred to by defendant's counsel in the trial since the will it contained would show a motive for the murder by Murray.

Attended by court officials, Mrs. Murray went to Hathorn's room in the store, and the box was found. Besides the articles in it already mentioned was a paper on which was written, "Eben Greenleaf has sworn to kill me, and I believe he will."

When Greenleaf was never came to light. John Murray was invited to return, but wrote his wife to sell out the store and bring his inheritance east.
